

Narrowboat FUTURE

FUTURE is a boat which one could safely say is unlike any other boat on the waterways. With the hull by the well known Stenson, in a move away from the traditional she has had a stylish and modern fit out by her current owners, and with lots of 'mod-cons' installed She makes for a large and comfortable home or holiday boat.

She has an Eberspacher diesel fired central heating system powering 5 radiators, a motorised TV satellite self seeking system, Freeview TV, intruder alarm system (not wired up), VHF radio, wind turbine, a whopping 7.5kw diesel powered genset, 2kw inverter, space & plumbing for a washing machine, electric oven, gas hob & electric griddle, a huge double bed and sofa bed, mood lighting and extensive storage...all gently propelled by the ever reliable Beta 43 diesel engine.

From the well deck, enter into a huge 17ft open plan saloon. The sofa sits opposite the wall mounted TV under a large wall mirror.

The solid fuel stove delineates the move into the large galley with ample drawer and cupboard storage. A side hatch and two houdini roof hatches create a lot of light and ventilation.

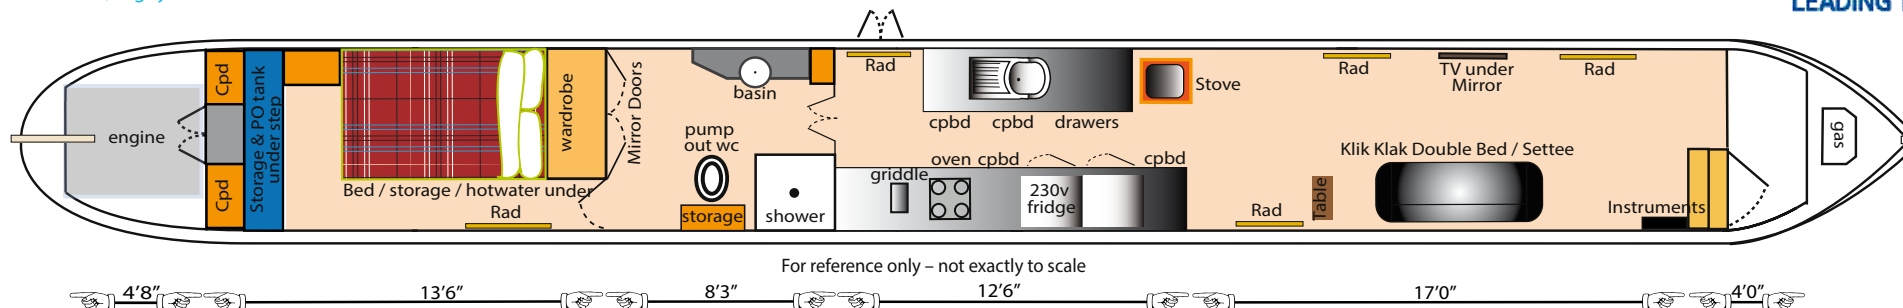

Through into the spacious walk through bathroom housing a stylish glass bowl basin, hair dryer, shaver point, towel rail, a Tecma macerator pumpout loo and shower. There is a huge 2ft deep x 3'10" wide wardrobe in here with full height mirrored doors.

The bedroom follows at the stern. Lots of storage under the huge 7'3" x 4'6" bed, with a ceiling mounted TV over.

The electrics and further storage are found at the back of the bedroom, and the pumpout tank is under the steps up to the cruiser-stern deck which houses the Beta 43 diesel engine.

Please ring prior to viewing as she will be 'off site' in May for 2-3 weeks
